These are some of the activities that may be covered by Year 6 this term:

Mathematics

- Statistics
- Revision of topics already covered
- Maths skills in everyday situations e.g. costing of a project
- Maths investigations

French

- My Community/Members of my Family
- Using colours to describe appearance
- Ordering Food/Shopping for food
- At the market
- Dates and times

English

- Continue the work on the Writing Checklist.
- Revision of spelling rules
- Revision of punctuation and grammar work
- Fiction genres Suspense stories, Character Descriptions
- Non-fiction genres Discussions and Explanations

• Studying traditional Aboriginal art.

• Making artwork to depict a story or timeline of identity for Muslims?

Continue Human and Social Sciences: How do beliefs shape

• Theology: What do Christians and Hindus believe happens when you

• Drama through end of term production

personal history.

History

- Personal History
- Study explorers
- Research the exploration of Australia

Geography

• Comparative study of physical and human characteristics of the UK, France and China

PΕ

- Develop rounders skills through focused skills tasks and games.
- Develop cricket skills through focused tasks and games.
- Athletic skills will be taught to include: running starts, technique, finishing and pace; relay changeovers; standing long jump technique; throwing over arm and throwing accurately.

I'm a Year 6, Get Me Out of Here! Summer Term 2025

Science

- Evolution and inheritance how living things have changed over time
- Impact of Charles Darwin on the Theory of Evolution
- How animals and plants adapt to their environments

Music

• Performance skills will be developed through the end of year productions.

p. 0 a

PSHEE

- Money Matters
- Relationship and Sex Education
- Transition work
- Enterprise project

Computing

- Variables in games using Scratch
- Creating a programme on a controllable device die?

- Self-image and identity
- Online reputation

DT

• Food and Nutrition: To research, design, make and evaluate a pasty.