

Hertfordshire and West Essex Integrated Care Board Youth Council

What is the Integrated Care Board (ICB)?

The ICB is an NHS organisation that works together with many other organisations to improve the health of the population. We have set up a Youth Council because we would like to hear the voices of children and young people in Hertfordshire and West Essex.

About the ICB Youth Council

The Youth Council hopes to bring children and young people together to understand their experiences of health services and listen to their ideas and opinions. If you become a Youth Ambassador for the ICB, you will get the opportunity to work with health professionals from different backgrounds and be able to have a real impact on health services for children and young people.

Recruitment

We currently have the opportunity for young people aged between 12-19 years old or up to 25 for young people with Special Educational Needs or disabilities, to join the newly established ICB Youth Council. Are you interested in:

- representing the voices of young people within the healthcare system?
- working in partnership with health sector professionals to improve health services for young people?

What are the Benefits ?

- An opportunity for learning and development
- A real experience that can be added to your CV for future employment
- You will receive an annual certificate of achievement and participation
- Becoming part of a team and building new friendships with your peer ambassadors

The opportunity to collaborate with health professionals to have a real impact on children and young people's services
